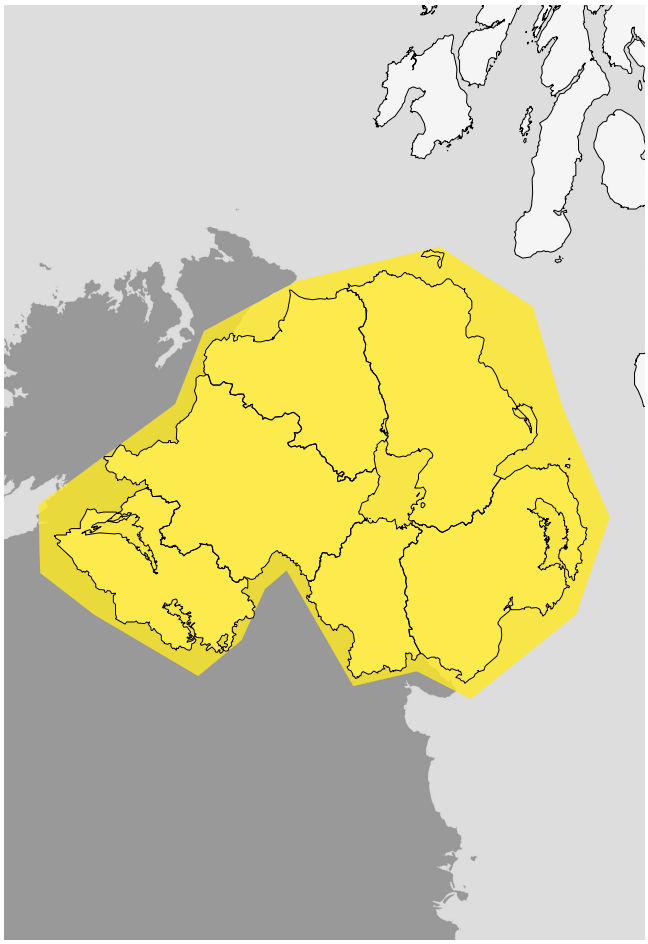
Rain

Between
18:00 Sat 21 Sep 2019 and
21:00 Sun 22 Sep 2019



Heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected on Saturday evening, perhaps merging into longer spells of rain on Sunday.

What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Interruption to power supplies due to lightning is possible

Further details

Heavy showers and thunderstorms are expected to move north to affect Northern Ireland later on Saturday and into Saturday night. While many places are likely to stay dry, there is a risk of 30-40 mm in a few hours which may lead to localised flooding and travel disruption. Strong, gusty winds are also likely at first.

During Sunday, the showers are likely to merge into a longer period of rain. This perhaps heaviest over the south and west of Northern Ireland, with the potential for a further 30-40 mm in 3-6 hours in a few places.

Medium likelihood of low impacts
